

PROXIMITY

I used two rounded rectangle and group it together to make it into 'T' letter here and also the circuit show that the the data was there.

The cat become our primary image to relace the 'C' letter for this object. Again it show the image of our representative for this kulliyyah

MEANING

We all know that many cat lived in KICT and Labun also become an icon to this Kulliyyah. So, our Kulliyyah can be an example of the harmony place in IIUM. While, the USB object with circuit image on it to show the hardware, storage and data were transmit within it where it represent about IT. So, it is believed that KICT can connect the people to another
